Do you teach secondary school science, maths or geography?

Twig is an online resource with thousands of tailor-made films, lesson plans worksheets to support secondary school teaching in maths, geography and the sciences. Twig has been recognised for excellent quality, pedagogy, usability and strong links to the Australian Curriculum.

With Twig, there’s no need to search the internet for age-appropriate content that is going to engage your students. It has all been done for you!
Accessing Twig

Step One:
Enter the Library Catalogue

http://cat.lib.unimelb.edu.au/record=e1001573~S31

Step Two:
Access Twig through this link

Step Three:
Start exploring Twig

Connect to:

- Twig
- Twig World

Description:
Twig is an online resource with thousands of tailor-made films, lesson plans and worksheets to support secondary school teaching in science, maths and geography. Twig has been recognised for excellent quality, pedagogy and usability.

Authorized Users:
University of Melbourne staff and students have access to this electronic resource.

Captivate your class
Thousands of three-minute films and learning materials tailored to your curriculum.

What are you teaching today?