7) This will open a document, scroll down to the second page and you’ll see the username and password for the Australian Construction Law Newsletter. Copy this information down, as you’ll need it to access the newsletter.

8) Next, go to the Australian Construction Law Newsletter at: http://cat.lib.unimelb.edu.au:80/record=b5062398~S30 and click on the online holdings link:

9) Click on “LOGIN” at the top of the page:

10) Enter the username and password from Step #7 above, I would recommend checking the “Remember Me” box so you don’t need to enter this information again the next time. Click login.
11) Once you are logged in, put your cursor on Newsletter and select “Full Newsletter Archive“:
12) Search for your articles by year and volume number. For example, for the first article, scroll down to 2001 and select Issue #85. You can find the article in that issue.
